

From our beginnings in 1976, the centerpiece of our firm's progressive personal injury trial practice has been working with other South Florida co-counsel. We have formed strategic alliances with lawyers in every practice area throughout South Florida. This has allowed us the opportunity to work with you in our practice areas, which include:

- Personal Injury/Wrongful Death
- Motor Vehicle & Transportation
- Auto Crashworthiness
- Aviation
- Inadequate Premises Security
- Premises Liability
- Maritime/Boating/Cruiseship Liability
- Defective Products
- Medical Malpractice
- Nursing Home Litigation
- Federal Tort Claims Act

At Leesfield Leighton & Partners, P. A., we honor and encourage a valuable co-counseling fee experience as authorized by the Florida Bar. The advantages of networking and sharing litigation information has proven to be of mutual value to a wide variety of South Florida law firms. There are few experiences more worthwhile than preparing and trying a matter with co-counsel — ultimately bringing economic security to our mutual clients for injury and loss.

HAVE WE WORKED TOGETHER YET?

In today's complex personal injury litigation world, there are compelling reasons to consider an early co-counseling association. The benefits include:

- (1) Access to the very best experts available.
- (2) Discovery of all available insurance coverage.
- (3) Preservation of vital evidence and consideration of evidence spoliation.
- (4) Bad faith considerations.
- (5) The opportunity to network and build strategic alliances with firms in various practice areas.
- (6) The opportunity to maximize recovery for our mutual clients.
- (7) The opportunity to share expertise and knowledge and work closely together.
- (8) Access to decades of information, research, depositions and prior litigation experience with similar defendants.
- (9) The use of highly trained investigators.
- (10) Comprehensive client communication in English and Spanish.

As always, the "proof of the pudding" is in the results obtained for our mutual clients. The satisfaction and accomplishment of our firm's work with other South Florida lawyers is best expressed in the Fall 2005 issue of our firm's newsletter Petition, found at our Web firm as always! Most trial firms I have known over the years do not do half the preparation for trial that Ira's firm does just for mediation. They could not have worked harder, been more committed or achieved a better result..."

So, let's give it a try. Let's work together on your next personal injury litigation matter. We now have three offices in South Florida — Miami, Key West and South Beach — to best serve you and your clients. We are always available to join you at the place most convenient for your clients to provide investigation, consultation, case evaluation and legal support with prompt case resolution. To so many of you, thanks for all the years of support and confidence which has given our firm a chance to serve the legal community of South Florida. ☺
